ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

Islamic Educational Welfare Association is a non-governmental organization and it is visualizing on creating a society which will be free from hunger, exploitation, and subjugation of any type. It will be based on justice, peace and equality irrespective of caste, gender, religions and political, where people will live in peaceful co-existence with nature; where people love, respect and co-operate each other for their self reliance and prosperity in the society as well as in humanity as a whole. It has grown to become a convergence point for economically disadvantaged groups who lack access to credit and other community sources.

Organization started with limited resources and manpower. The organization aims to empower the economically weaker & socially marginalized section of the society through capacity building of the people. Beside this, it is working with various NGOs, Governmental organizations, the group felt that rural development in District Malda, West Bengal need a different approach i.e. professional and scientific approach rather than conventional approach to take up the challenges of state for its overall development. In fact, the voluntary and non professional way of working has created innumerable problems in long run, which hamper the real growth after lots of financial & physical investment. Therefore, the group has initiated this institution with a belief of "Participatory Development Process" which will be sustainable in a long way.

As far as the legal status of Islamic Educational Welfare Association is concerned, it is a legally constituted voluntary organization having registered under Societies Registration Act of 1961. It works on No Profit-No Loss basis. It is also entitled to receive donation/contribution from outside India as it has FCRA certification, issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India.

VISION OF THE ORGANIZATION

A world where individuals have dignity, self respect and people respect each other without the barriers of poverty, gender, caste, and religion. Beside this, whole development (socio, eco, political & spiritual) should be necessary for better development of whole society. Our main aim has been to convert the individual dreams into a collective consciousness through community convergence and participatory approach with the tools of self as well as social awareness.

“If We Can Dream It We Can Do It.”

We know that the path we’ve chosen is long and arduous yet our morale is on a high, we don’t claim that we’ll change the whole society, but through our honesty, education and hard work we might just succeed in making some difference.

MISSION OF THE ORGANIZATION

Islamic Educational Welfare Association wants to enrich the society in proper manner, so that, every problematic person can get appropriate opportunity for their better development. Through which, society can nourish the development of its own people.

- To create a cohesive and more united society and to enable poor, rural communities to improve their social and economic condition/situation through participatory development.
- To create innovative models of sustainable development that can be replicated in India and throughout world.
- To empower community members to sustain projects activities autonomously and to launch new development endeavors for the improvement of their communities.

Sanaullah (Teacher), Md. Ferdous (Bamongram H.M.A. M. High School Teacher)

The issues of socio economic development of Muslim Women need to be addressed in Malda district in west Bengal. So we organized this seminar with assistance from the National Commission for Women.

DISCUSSIONS IN THE SEMINAR

The issues of Women's Problem, of socio economic development of Muslim Women need to be addressed by the resource persons. Statistical write-ups were also distributed. The legal aspects of the problems were also addressed during interactive sessions with beneficiaries.

Spoke on importance of development of Muslim women

Abdus Sadeque (Imam Bamongram Purana Jamamasjid) delivered the welcome address. He invited all the women to the Seminar on Socio – Economic Development of Muslim Women. He spoke on the issue of importance of development of Muslim women. He said that there is need for all efforts for upliftment of Muslim Women. All Muslim women need to be brought forward. Muslim Women are backward in India. They need to be encouraged to move forward. No one should sleep hungry. Solutions related to their problems need to be found. He spoke the importance of upliftment of the women of the Muslim Community. Abdus Sadeque said that the situation of Muslim Women in West Bengal in the last 10 years needs to be analysed.

Spoke on the need of comprehensive development of Muslim Women

Md. Sanaul Haque (Social Worker) addressed the audience on the issue of the need of comprehensive development of Muslim Women. He read out a beautiful poem of Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay. The poem talked about a woman, when she moves with “ghoonghat”, in earrings and green saree. One day, she will be married off. He said only memories remain. He read out the emotional poem and then gave the vote of thanks.

Spoke on statistics about Muslim Women

She made the audience aware on various statistics about Muslim Women. She said that the access of Muslims to bank credit is low and inadequate; the community has one of the lowest monthly per capita expenditure (MPCE), and lowest representation in the public sector employment. The community lags behind severely in political representation and its representation in Indian Administrative Services has been only about 3 per cent for the last three decades.

Spoke on Socio – Economic Development of Muslim Women

Md. Musuk Shaikh(Advocate) address was based on his experience as a Advocate. He said that there is need of providing information to women and sensitizing them. He told the audience that Muslim women are backward, not only in Bamongram but in most parts of the country. They are backward in the field of health and education. He addressed all the women with respect. He made the audience aware about the various teachings of Prophet Muhammed.

Spoke on socio-economic inclusion of Muslim women through livelihood activities.

Abdul Gaffar (Professor) addressed the audience on the issue of socio-economic inclusion of Muslim women through livelihood activities. He told the audience that there is utmost need to try to reestablish and correct the stereo-typed images of Muslim women in India so as to provide indisputable understanding of Muslim women in the society. The involvement of Muslim women in livelihood sector needs to be encouraged in West Bengal.

Spoke on Need for Development of Muslim Women in all fields

Mr. Selim observed that Muslim women have been excluded for generations in Indian society which is quite contrary to the history of Muslim women during the inception of Islamic era in Arab and neighbouring societies. Mr. Selim observed that the livelihood activities of Muslim women cannot be governed by the tradition or religion per se. He also put forward the statistics. He said that the need of the post modern economic activities requires equal appreciation and inclusion of Muslim women in the livelihood activities.

Spoke on How Women are Progressing in All Fields

Md. Aminul Islam (Chairman, Estate Waqf, Malda District, Ex-T- Naimouza High School) addressed the audience on the issue of How Women are Progressing in All Fields. He started addressing the audience by reading out a poem. He said that our country shall win in all fields. Mr. Islam said that girls are moving ahead in life. He said all Muslim girls should try to get education and join jobs. Girls can help in our country's growth. Women are moving ahead in life and earning name and fame. So, all Muslim Women should try to contribute for our nation's development.

Spoke on Problems faced by People of Muslim Community

He told the audience that Muslim community continues to lag behind other socio-religious categories in socio-economic and educational development. He said the situation of the community is appalling with regard to income, employment in public sector, educational attainment, access to healthcare and other infrastructures, and there is a disproportionately high share of community members in prisons. Identity stereotyping, communal violence, ghettoisation etc. are other major issues which the community faces.

Spoke on Women Contribution to Development

Mr. Ali told the audience that they should take care of their education and empowerment. He told them on how to have good education. He said that all women shall make their contribution to make the country developed. He shared knowledge on famous Women Poets in the past and said that we all feel so proud of them. He encouraged Muslim Women to excel in their fields.

Spoke on Government Efforts for Socio-Economic Development of Muslim Women.

Mr. Rabbani started addressing the audience by reading out a poem on "Nari Maryada". He said that a woman completes a man. Women should be respected and they have a special place in our lives. According to Islam, Women have special place in our lives.

Socially, we have kept Muslim Women backward. Every state in India, shall fulfill its responsibilities towards Muslim Women. Various Ministries are looking into this on how can socio-economic development of Muslim Women can be achieved.
